FREE US FROM FASCISM

by EFSMB (Empowered Feminist Stole My Baby) (2026 APRIL 10th)

You Stain

Are walkin' away

From the ideals you said you had yesterday yesterday you said we should be free but now you say that you're more equal than me and you're offended now by John Locke and you'll censor me for sayin a word like * saying you don't need food that much anymore and if your marriage falls apart you had it coming ****!

and you don't need a home, you're offensive and if your death results from this, too bad, you're offensive every standard of a normal life is getting thrown in!

Any semblance of a normal life is denied tonight,

You'll torture and deprive me for so many *in days, because you are a fascist, you take it all away a fascist with faulty vision tormenting a free speech liberal today

I here's nothing free where we're going man, see'?

You stain,
can now go away,
I hope they help,
make it faster today.

You stain,
are no friend of me,
I hope they defeat you,
so we can be free.

WAR IS PEACE
FREEDOM IS SLAVERY
I hope they defeat you,
so we can be free.

We're going to the fascist candyland
We're going to a fascist *ing candystore * your freedom, we don't have it anymore Communist Fascists burned down everything in the store

I live like a dog because i believe in free speech

I don't see your nobility,

I just see everything you've done to me,

We traded one fascist for another, just as bad, you're a global fascist movement, without opposition, so much more dangerous than Mussolini, Mussolini never took over the world successfully,
so now we don't have a democracy,
We have a global fascist corporate oligarchy.

You stain,

ADDENDUM:

Fascism is the merger of government and corporate power, characterized by a crackdown on speech, civil liberties, and other things like that. I think this is self evident, but if you dispute this, surely you'll agree that corporations hold an outsized amount of power over our laws, lives and regulations globally, often more power than the individual governments themselves. We cannot petition these people to redress our grievances. There is no form for this. While our governments and constitutions promised free speech unrestrained under the law, since the private sector controls all speech, they have instituted paternalistic fascist policies. Forced compliance with the most extreme conservative positions on speech, banning profanity, sexuality, violent works (though slasher movies are fine), anything unusual politically or religiously (SEE: the Amazon book burning, 2024), or just anything that might make trouble for them. It was for this reason the first amendment was written, the next step is to declare our corporations the government defacto, so that the first amendment will apply to them, freedom is restored, and the ultraconservative extremist position on speech, the no speech fascist nanny state policy, is removed.
